Weave Dreams With Us

Enjoy a great experience with the California Alliance for Women as we weave our wings of dreams and create them with intention. The retreat begins on Friday, August 15, 2014 with registration from 2:00-5:00 PM and ends Monday, August 18, 2014 at noon.

The CYO Retreat Center is located at 2136 Bohemian Hwy, Occidental, CA. 95465, amidst 216 acres of redwoods and meadows in Sonoma County, near the Ocean and next to Occidental. Renowned for immaculate facilities, the center features wooded trails, playing fields, basket and volleyball courts, two swimming pools and campfire sites.

Lodging & Meals: Lodging is provided in well-designed 12 person cabins with heat and electricity. Bathroom facilities are separate. A few tent sites available. Our Chef, Dianna Estes serves delicious meals from Friday's dinner to Monday's takeaway lunch. Options always include vegetarian dish and we work hard to accommodate food allergies and restrictions with prior notice.

Circle Groups: Circle groups are the heart of our community. During retreat, we gather daily with the same small group. This is your home base, a safe, intimate place in which to listen and be heard.

Offerings: Bodywork & Other Arts: Women attending the retreat with talents in massage, bodywork, readings and other services are welcome to provide services to sister participants during free times. Please check the "Fee for Service" box on the Registration Form if you want to offer a service.

Bring a Friend: Groups of four or more women attending the Retreat for the first time receive a 25% discount upon request.

Our Purpose for Each Retreat

CAW wants to provide a transformational experience for each camper during a long weekend. We gather in community to connect in spirit. Everyone can feel nurtured and cared for within a safe space, symbolized by Opening and Closing Ceremonies which creates our sacred space and connection to our inner selves and each other. We nurture everyone with food, friendship, workshops, small circles and free time.

presents:

Weaving Wings of Dreams!

August 15 – 18, 2014

What is YOUR dream?

Did you stay in your nest & forget to fly?

Did you fly near to the sun and get burned?

Are you endlessly flapping your wings & getting nowhere?

Do you have dreams you hold too tightly?

Who supports your wings?

A four day retreat for women to:
Connect, Reflect, Play, Sing &
Nurture Themselves.
